DANCE - IMPROVISATION WITH MARIE – Experience the intense pleasure of creating your own movements and expressive moments in an open and supportive environment. After a warmup based on contemporary dance technique and phrases, we learn to stand still with confidence, to walk in space being aware in others, to interact with people through the language of the body. We'll also learn to perform for each other and give constructive feedback. As we move through space, our heightened attention helps us listen to our bodies and hear those around us. We focus our energies and are fully committed to each movement, each moment, and to each other. The music, the space, and the energy of those in it, inspire and reconnect us with the joy of dancing. 8 WEEKS ONLY. ENDS AUG 17, 2018.

STRONG® -. If you like DartFit, Insanity, Tabata or another type of mixed interval program, you'll love STRONG™. STRONG™ is a high intensity interval training program that's music interval based, so there's no keeping an eye on the clock or waiting for a timer to go off. High intensity moves (such as high knees, burpees, jumping jacks, static planks, etc.) are interchanged with lower intensity moves (like lunges, jump rope skips, kickboxing) and even lower-intensity active recovery. A major benefit of the class design is that your instructor adapts the workout to all fitness levels by modifying the exercise intensities, so everyone can take the class, be successful and progress. It's great for the occasional exerciser or "weekend warrior" who wants to add more, consistent exercisers looking to shake up their routines, and even off-season club and varsity athletes. Not recommended for completely deconditioned individuals or those recovering from serious injuries. 9 WEEKS ONLY AUGUST 23, 2018.
